

YMCA CHRISTIAN VALUES CONFERENCE 2011

THIS HOPE

The YMCA Christian Values Conference brings together young people from YMCAs across the country to the inspiring Blue Ridge Mountains in North Carolina for an unforgettable week. This super-charged conference incorporates teen experiences, caring adults and an outrageous series of wild events all woven together to make this year's conference theme, "This Hope" a personal challenge to each young person.

What you can expect on the mountain...

Delegates comments regarding the CVC...

FAMILY TIME – "This is where you really get to know people, sometimes even better than your friends back home." – 3rd Year Delegate

SPECIAL THEME PARTIES AND WILD EVENTS EVERY NIGHT "Time to let loose – dress is anything from a pink power ranger to mini-mouse – you get to see people in a whole new light." – 3rd Year Delegate

FREE TIME ACTIVITIES – "Hike up the mountain to High Windy for a view of the world, join the Conference Basketball Tournament of Champions, play in the ultimate Frisbee competition...whatever you choose you won't be bored even if its just sitting in a big green rocking chair and hanging out with friends". – College Staff Member

DEVOTIONS – "CVC means to me a time to step out of a busy life and into a time of devotion, family, fun, and a deeper encounter with God." – Tennessee Delegate
 "There is no way to describe the RELATIONSHIPS that are formed within the span of that one amazing week on the mountain. And I know that each year will bring new and exciting faces, whether it be from a family group or even the adult leaders, everyone is a friend." – Alabama Delegate
